

TERMS OF USE
of www.bdrp.pl website

Dear User of our website,

We want to inform you that:

- 1) This website is managed by the company Borek Doliński Radcowie Prawni spółka jawna (the general partnership) with headquarter in Poznań, at: Macieja Palacza 96/1, 60-274 Poznań, entered into the register of entrepreneurs of National Court Register by District Court in Poznan-Nowe Miasto i Wilda w Poznaniu, VIII Commercial Division of the National Court Register, under number: 852234, NIP (tax identification number): 7831821915, REGON: 386626683 (hereinafter referred to as the „Controller”)
- 2) All information and content gathered and published within this website are owned by the Controller or are published by the Controller under appropriate licenses. The Controller does not grant you any permission to copy, modify, publish, or develop any content gathered within this website. Any violation of this point may result in legal liability to be incurred by you under the provisions of law.
- 3) This website serves three following purposes:
 - a) to inform you about the Controller's business activities;
 - b) to enable you to access the legal information published by the Controller within this website;
 - c) to enable you to contact the Controller.
- 4) Any information published within this website is of strictly informative nature and does not constitute provision of legal services. The Controller does not assume any responsibility for your compliance with the content published within this website. The content may be incomplete, outdated and not adjusted to your specific situation. If you need legal support, you should explicitly contact the Controller or other legal service providers for this purpose.
- 5) The Controller provides legal services in accordance with the Code of Ethics of Attorney-at-Law available for download at this link:
<https://kirp.pl/wp-content/uploads/2015/03/code-of-ethics-of-attorneys-at-law-in-poland.pdf>.
- 6) As part of your use of this website, you may disclose your personal data. The rules of their processing by the Controller have been made available at the following address:

https://en.bdrp.pl/Privacy_policy.pdf.

To open the privacy policy published at the above address, you may need to download appropriate software, such as Adobe Reader, which can be used to read .pdf files. You can easily access such software free of charge on the Internet.

- 7) When using this website, remember about the associated risks – in particular the possibility of interception of information sent by you via e-mail by unauthorized persons. When sending such information, consider encrypting it beforehand (e.g., by setting a password in Microsoft Word or 7zip software and sending it to the Controller via a separate communication channel, such as an SMS message). This website has been designed to minimize the possible risks associated with its use. The Controller uses SSL certificate, does not use contact forms, registration forms, login forms and widgets associated with an increased risk of interception of the information sent by you unauthorized person or downloading malicious software (viruses, Trojan horses, etc.).
- 8) When using this website or the contact data provided herein (in particular e-mail addresses and telephone numbers), you are obliged to refrain from any unlawful activities, in particular the sending of any illegal content or content containing malicious software (e.g., viruses or Trojan horses). Any action contrary to this point may result in legal liability for you under the law.
- 9) Should you wish to order any services from the Controller by means of this website, in particular via the e-mail addresses provided, a service provision agreement will only be concluded if the Controller explicitly confirms (in document form under pain of nullity) that the Controller accepts the order. The execution of a specific order may be subject to the prior conclusion of a separate agreement governing the terms of cooperation.
- 10) If you are not satisfied with the quality of services provided by the Controller, you can contact the Controller using the contact details indicated in section 1) above and file a complaint with the Poznań Bar Association of Attorneys-at-Law if you believe that the Controller's actions are in breach of the Code of Ethics of Attorney-at-Law or the law.
